The General Secretary
Peoples Unity CBA Union of PIA
Karachi, Pakistan

18th July, 2011

Dear Bro. Kamran Chowdhary ,

We are shocked to learn about the death of Bro. Amir Shah, President of Peoples Unity CBA Union who was murdered by assailants in cold blood. We condemn in the strongest possible words the ghastly act of the murderers and the perpetrators behind the killing. It is a black day for the working class of Pakistan, and a rude shock for the trade unions of not only Pakistan but the entire world as democratically elected leaders of trade unions become victims of sectarian violence.

We join you and all the members of the Union and workers in PIA in condoling the death of Bro. Amir Shah. The ITF President Bro. Paddy Crumlin, General Secretary Bro. David Cockroft and Civil Aviation Secretary, Gabriel Mocho have asked me to personally convey their deepest shock and grief at the incident. The entire ITF family pays homage to the bereaved Soul and join you in your resolve to expose and fight the sectarian forces in society that try to silence the democratic voices of working class organisations.

In grief,
